

Lee, Lim Dart - Class of '42

LEE, Lim Dart Loving husband of Elizabeth, who predeceased him, proud parent of Carol (Adrian), Lester (Teresa) and Michael (Karen) and doting grandfather of Jasmyn, Nikki, Matthew, Desi, Amanda and Maggie. Surrounded by family, Lim died peacefully in his sleep on Sunday, December 18, 2011, and has joined his beloved Liz in heaven. He was 87 years young. Affectionately known as "Limmie" to his friends, Lim led a full and successful life. Shortly after graduation from UBC in 1950, he was the first Chinese-Canadian to own and operate his own pharmacy in Canada. Lee's Pharmacy, at the corner of Main and Pender, featured in Vancouver's Chinatown for over 30 years. Lim was a well-known and respected contributing member of Vancouver's Chinese business community. He served as a director for several organizations, including The Arbutus Club. An avid tennis player, he played at several clubs, founded the Panda Tennis Club which won a coveted City Championship in the early 70's, and covered the Canadian tennis scene for a regional publication for many years. Lim loved jazz music from the Big Band Era. Learning, particularly foreign language study, was a lifelong passion and Lim could often be overheard practicing his Japanese, Mandarin, and Cantonese vocabulary throughout his golden years. Lim's sunny disposition and infectious sense of humour will be greatly missed by his family and friends, all of whom have special and fond memories. Rejoice knowing that Lim and Liz will dance through eternity stepping to their favourite tune, Glenn Miller's "Stairway To The Stars".

Published in Vancouver Sun and/or The Province from December 23 to December 24, 2011

---