

Randolph (Randy) LOMAS

Class of '67

LOMAS, Randolph Gene (1948-2012) Passed away on July 7, 2012. A loving father sadly missed by daughters Diana (Michael) and Debbie and son Jeff (Kelsey). Survived by siblings Patricia, Gail, Shelley, Rodger and Tim. Predeceased by his brother Evan in 2002. Randy was a person who loved life. His journey took him from farming as a youth and then to auto mechanics which began a lifelong fascination with old cars. He eventually moved north for a new challenge as full-time farmer in the Prince George area. After several years he returned to Vancouver Island. Randy dabbled briefly in real estate before changing careers yet again when he joined the staff of VGH in the early 1980s. He completed his varied career there with retirement in 2010. Randy was very involved in life and easily became a much respected co-worker and beloved member of his community. Randy's humour, warmth, stories and smile will be greatly missed and fondly remembered.

Published in Victoria Times-Colonist from July 19 to July 21, 2012