

Annette Cole McCORQUODALE Class of '49

McCORQUODALE, Annette Cole 81, of Richardson, Texas, passed away on May 30, 2012. She was born March 27, 1931, in Victoria, to Thomas and Jean Cole. She graduated from Victoria High School and attended nursing school. She was married for many years to Dr. D. James McCorquodale, also of Victoria, including his years on the faculties at Emory University, the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and the Southwest Center for Advanced Studies. Annette spent 35 years in government service in Dallas, Texas, and Portland, Oregon, including work as a taxpayer service representative, in audit, and as a legal assistant with the regional trial counsel's office. She traveled widely in North America and Europe, enjoyed the symphony and opera, and was a dedicated sports fan. Her loving family will miss her greatly. She is survived by her brother and sister-in-law, Tom and Marci Cole, of Sooke, B.C.; her brother Jerry Cole of Victoria, B.C.; her son James McCorquodale of Dallas; her daughter Lizette Hudson of Chandler, Arizona; and her granddaughter Jessica McCorquodale of Dallas.
