

WILLIAMS, Joan F.

May 20, 1917 February 21, 2012

Joan was the beloved wife of the late Ian H. Williams. She was a graduate of Victoria High School Class of '34 and UBC where she received a law degree. She practised law in Victoria and Vancouver and for a short time in England. She joined the RCAF during World War Two. Joan was a founding member of Victoria's Outdoor Club. She became an ardent sailor, world traveller, writer of travelogue diaries, and bridge player. She leaves to mourn nieces and nephews and their families.

Published in Victoria Times-Colonist from March 2 to March 3, 2012