

Ralph C. Fell (December 20, 1923 - January 06, 2015)

Born December 20, 1923 in Fort William, Ont. Passed peacefully from this life on January 6, 2015 in Victoria, B.C. at the age of 91. He was predeceased by Bett, his beloved wife of 51 years, in 2011. He leaves to mourn his two children: Ian (Debbie) and Susan (Mathew) and his five wonderful grandsons: Eric, Joshua, Jeremy, Brendan and Nicholeas. Also, two sisters: Roxanne (Jack), Claudia (John), one brother, Edward (Penny), and many nieces and nephews. As a child our Dad was a King's Scout and a choir boy at Christ Church Cathedral in Victoria. After serving as a pilot in the RCAF during W.W.II he obtained his teaching degree at the University of British Columbia and taught high school for over 30 years in, first, Port Alberni and then Victoria at Central Junior High and then at Vic High. He was a member of the Kiwanis Club of Oak Bay. Ralph and Bett lived in Qualicum Beach for 7 years before returning to Victoria in 1995. At various stages of his life he enjoyed telling his young children his own made-up stories as he washed their hair on Saturday night, building rock walls, creating beautiful gardens, making beer and wine and watercolour painting. Whatever he did he did well. Many thanks to the staff and residents at the Kensington for making his years there enjoyable ones. Heartfelt thanks to his dear friend Nancy Balmer of Seniors Serving Seniors for her kindness to our Dad in his final years. No service by request. We will miss his wit and generous spirit. Rest in peace Dad. We love you and we miss you.
