

George Alfred MAGGS – Vic High Class of 1942

MAGGS, George Alfred December 13, 1923, Wetaskiwin, Alberta November 27, 2011, Duncan, B.C. George, a retired school teacher of the Cowichan Valley, lived most of his life in Maple Bay, where he was able to indulge his passion for sailing. George joined MBYC at 17 years of age. His younger years were spent in Victoria, swimming in Crystal Pool and bicycling all over town with his chums. George graduated with his teaching degree from UBC, following a short time in the R.C.N. Thanks to new drugs and his young age, he was able to overcome Tuberculosis. George loved sailing, tennis, hiking mountains, curling and his many friends. He has had a very full and eventful life living in his beloved Maple Bay. Winter holidays were spent in Kailua-Kona, Hawaii. George was a past commodore of Maple Bay Yacht Club, and also a former member of Blue Gavel for many years. George was also a former member of the Maple Bay volunteer firefighters. Predeceased by brother Morley; wife Betty; daughter Thurza; and very recently, son Geoffrey. George is survived by wife Gloria; grandchildren Sara (Mark), Amanda (Paul), David, Katelin, and Taylor; by great grandchildren Jessica and Isabelle, Bryson and Tinsley. Also survived by stepchildren Shauna Brouwer and Marc Streifling; sister Marjorie (Bernie) Potentier; niece Christine (Jim); nephews Doug (Darlene) Potentier and John (Elaine) Kirstein. Funeral service at St. Peter's Anglican Church, Duncan (off Maple Bay Rd.), December 6, 1pm. Reception to follow at Maple Bay Yacht Club, Genoa Bay Rd (off Maple Bay Rd.) 2 4:30pm. 643716
