

Dorothy Irene (nee Ralfs) Robb - Vic High Class of 1932

ROBB, Dorothy Irene (Ralfs) November 17, 1916 - February 28, 2015 Mom slipped away peacefully in her sleep at Victoria General Hospital following a brief illness and in her 99th year. Mom leaves behind six children and their families missing her every day. They are Ian (Barbara), Leslie (Roberta), Elizabeth (Peter), Rosemary, Alan (Leigh Ann) and Dorothy (Eric). She is also remembered by 14 grandchildren and 7 great-grandchildren. She was always pleased to welcome all visitors to her home and took a definite interest in each person who came to visit her. She loved playing word games and KenKen. After many years of teaching in various parts of the Province, she retired to Victoria to be close to her family. Mom was predeceased by her husband Norman Robb, her parents Arthur and Elizabeth Ralfs and 3 brothers and 2 sisters. Thanks to the staff at VGH emergency ward and the Priory Day Program. Donations to the BC Neurofibromatosis Society or the Priory Day Program can be made in her name. At the request of Mom, there will be no service at this time.
