

QUAN, Lily

Lily passed away peacefully after a brave battle with cancer on March 9, 2012. Born in Vancouver, B.C. September 21, 1927, Lily lived most of her life in Victoria. Predeceased by her son, Steven, in 1977. She is lovingly remembered by her brother, David Lee, children Ming (Linda), Tony (Marilyn), Brenda (Rick) Mitchelmore, Annette (Gerald) Ford and her grandchildren Steven, Jeffrey, Stanley, Annalyn and Ryland. Lily also leaves behind an extended family in Vancouver. Though a quiet, private person, Lily was adored by all those who knew her well. Her laugh, her smile and gentle presence will be dearly missed and family dim sum will not be the same without her. Her greatest joy was seeing her grandchildren grow up especially in their sports and music performances. Her greatest gift to them will be her strength and determination in "living life ". Many thanks to the staff of Victoria Hospice where she spent her final days and to the Beacon homecare support she received while living at The Wellesley. No service by request. Arrangements provided by First Memorial. In lieu of flowers, please donate to Hospice or a charity of one's choice. She is not gone, for in our hearts she lingers on. You'll feel her presence in the breeze that dances gently through the trees and it's her face that you will see when you're in need of company. At any time you can recall, the love you shared... you saved it all. And in time, more than anything, you'll find peace in remembering.

Published in Victoria Times-Colonist on Mar. 17, 2012