

HARLAN, Jennie Doreen February 12, 1927 - October 7, 2017 Jennie passed away peacefully on October 7, 2017 at Victoria Hospice. She was proud to have been born and raised in Victoria, attending Oaklands Elementary and Victoria High schools. In 1946, while walking in Beacon Hill Park, she met Norm, the love of her life. They were married for over 60 years. Predeceased by husband Norm, brother Ted Robbins and sister Irene Kendrew. Remembered by son Robin (Wendy), daughter Wendy (Jim) Boyd, grandchildren Shelby (Curtis) Bates, Meghan Boyd (Adam Smith), Thomas Harlan and great grandson Evan Smith. As well as nieces, nephews and cousins. Mom worked for many years as a stenographer at the Royal Theatre before joining the Provincial Civil Service, retiring from the Parks Branch. She was a member of the Gorge Vale Golf Club for over 40 years, where she made life-long friends. Always competitive, she loved a good game of bridge. After retiring Mom and Dad traveled south as snowbirds for many years. Family and friends were Jennie's passion. It was important to her that people stayed in touch. Thanks to the staff at the Wellesley, Victoria Hospice and Dr. David MacNaughton. A service will be held on Saturday, October 28, 2017 at 2 p.m., First Memorial Funeral Services, 4725 Falaise Drive, Victoria, BC. In lieu of flowers please consider a donation to Victoria Hospice.
