

HEGGIE, W. R. Claud 1921 2007 Born in Duncan, BC, elder son of Robert and Ann Heggie, Claud grew up at Shawnigan Lake and Langford, and attended Victoria High School. He served in WWII as RCAF ground crew, returning to Canada to work in the BC Forest Service in Prince George, and later the BC Parks Branch in Victoria, retiring in 1981. Claud excelled at golf and had a lifelong passion for the game. He also enjoyed sailing, bridge, wood-working, and gardening, and loved to fix almost anything. He is survived by wife Elizabeth Woodworth, brother John Heggie (Pat), nephew Colin Heggie (Barbara) and children Ben and Kathleen; niece Janice Miller (Lorne), and children Brant and Kirsten; also many friends, including his Sunday golf four-ball. All who knew him appreciated his straightforward, open, warm, generous and sometimes feisty disposition. Claud faced major health challenges for over two decades, always with dignity and cheerful optimism. The family wishes to thank Dr. Derek Carroll; also the Kidney Clinic, Pacemaker Clinic, and Victoria Hospice. In lieu of flowers please consider the Kidney Foundation or charity of your choice. There will be a celebration of Claud's life and sharing of memories at Uplands Golf Club, Saturday April 21st, 4-7 pm. Light refreshments will be served. If you can meet with Triumph and Disaster And treat those two impostors just the same; If you can force your heart and nerve and sinew To serve your turn long after they are gone, And so hold on when there is nothing in you Except the Will which says to them: "Hold on!" "If," Rudyard Kipling

Published in The Times Colonist on Apr. 1, 2007