

KIRCHNER, David Courtney. Born July 10, 1932 in Powell River BC and passed away peacefully on February 20, 2007 with his family at his side at Victoria Hospice. He is survived by his wife Judith, his daughter Lise, his son Matthew, his son-in-law Brent Mullin, his daughter-in-law Lisa Osoba, his grandchildren Zachary and Eli Mullin and Ella Kirchner, his sister Joy Wright, his brother Peter Kirchner and his many and much loved nieces, nephews and other relatives. He is predeceased by his brother John Kirchner. David lived in Victoria from the age of 4 where he attended Sir James Douglas Elementary School, Central Jr. High, Vic High and Victoria College. He studied law at UBC where he obtained his LLB in 1958. David practised law in Victoria from 1960 until his retirement in 2003. David loved the practise of law, which was made all the more fulfilling by his association with his long-time assistant, Ilona Ugro. He was grateful for the time he shared with his colleagues at Horne Coupar in the final years of his career, regretting only that he had not joined the firm sooner. He was admired by his colleagues and his clients for the quality of his work and his skills as a lawyer. His dedication to his clients was returned with trust and loyalty. David treasured his time with Judith, his children and grandchildren. He and Judith took up seakayaking early on and he loved to paddle with Judith on Saanich Inlet, around the Gulf Islands and in Howe Sound. David will be remembered for his kind heart and his sharp wit, both of which will be greatly missed by his many friends and family. The family wishes to thank the kind staff at Victoria Hospice for their compassionate care for David. A remembrance of David's life will be held at the University Club of Victoria (Faculty Club) at 4:00 p.m. on Wednesday, February 28, 2007 with a reception to follow.
