

Class of 1960 Reunion Team – Some Ideas

By Russ Leech, Reunion Team Leader

Our first reunion was our 28th, and we've been having fun at them ever since. Here's a few ideas from that first one.

- Silk-screened clothing included with registration
- CD or mixed tape of songs from the good ol' days
- Black & gold balloons, streamers, napkins, Vic High logos
- Hand-outs like short school history & photos, school map, week-end/event program
- Name tags with grad head shots on them (we've all changed over the years!)
- Ribbons identifying Reunion Team members
- Class photo printed on place mats
- Vintage & Classic Car show held on the track
- VHS-stamped brown bagged meal or snacks, (the one with a PB&J sandwich wins a prize!)
- Memories table and slide show on a loop
- Invite teachers to attend complimentary, arrange vintage car to pick up and return home
- Roaming photographer and photo board to display as photos are taken
- Include a VHS pin, mug, other souvenir in registration package
- Collect attendees' individual stories and current photos and publish in a reunion booklet (to hand out at the reunion, or distribute afterwards as a reunion yearbook)
- Print class photos as posters to identify meet-up areas
- Dance cards (yes, this one definitely dates us!)
- Blown-up prints of team and club photos on the walls of the venue
- Basketball game between Totems and an alumni team
- Musical skits incorporating music of the era with lots of references to school shenanigans, teachers, activities
- New, relevant lyrics to old songs from school days
- Pancake breakfast
