- Cocktail reception, including teachers
- Serious soccer game with the current Vic High Boys' or Girls' soccer team vs a Reunion team
- Dinner/dance with live music – perhaps an alumni plays in a band, or contact Vic High Music teacher to see if there's a jazz ensemble or other group that might want to play
- Casual picnic (bring your own outdoor chair, roasting stick, food to share, etc)
- Annual or biannual lunch
- Tours of the school – one it reopens in 2023
- Sing the school song – have the words available on a poster, AV screen, or to hand out
- One of the alumni singing the grad songs (everyone joins in)
- Running slide show incorporating baby/childhood/teenage/adult photos of alumni. CD's can be made and offered for sale and as door prizes, or the video can be emailed digitally to those interested or posted on the Alumni website (www.vichigh.com) or shared via Facebook
- Printed booklet with photos and alumni updates of their lives
- Sharing stories of how one alumni helped another later in life when their paths crossed
- School related trivia question game (good way to get tables served at a buffet)
- Large photograph board, updated throughout the years
- Handmade chocolates at each place setting, embossed with the grad year
- Wine glasses embossed with the commemorative date of reunion, or Class of _____

- Specialty t-shirts made with everyone's grad picture on the back
- Special table centerpiece bases painted artistically with Black/Gold creations
- Single rose for the ladies / boutonniere for the men upon arrival
- Past favourites have been the reappearance of the Majorettes and the Totems.
- A bag lunch containing a sandwich, a cookie, an apple, and white or chocolate milk.
- Huge reprints (life size) of photos from our Annual, hung all around the room, and a continuously running slideshow with photos from the annuals. The Alumni has a lot of building and other photos available to provide as well.
- We always did an assembly at the Saturday lunch and presented a musical skit
- Rewriting words from the tunes of our day
