

KIRBY, Cole James January 19th, 1957 - February 20th, 2015 Cole passed away in his home in Saskatoon, SK, at the age of 58. Cole was born in Duncan, BC and spent his years growing up in Victoria, BC, where he met the love of his life, Marie. Cole and Marie moved to Saskatoon at the age of 21 where Cole took his B.Ed at the U of S. He began working for the Saskatoon Public School Board shortly thereafter. He spent a lot of his working days involved with extra-curricular activities within the schools he worked at as a teacher, vice-principal, and principal in both the elementary and high school systems. Cole went on to further his education to receive his M.Ed from the U of S in 1993. He was a very talented and competitive football player in his younger years, and was also an avid curler. Cole was in the Guinness Book of World Records for the world's longest curling match. Cole is loved and remembered by his parents, James (Jim) and Ellen Kirby, his wife of 35 years Marie Kirby, his son Tanner (Lynsie), his daughter Kristen (John-Michael) and 6 month old granddaughter, Kinley Martens. Also by his brothers, Clay Kirby, wife Patty; and Rod Kirby, wife Michelle; and his sister Michelle Whitman and husband Dave.
