

Philip Weston Mundy peacefully passed away at the Royal Jubilee Hospital on August 14, 2019. “West”, as he liked to be called, was born in Victoria, B.C. on August 3, 1957.

West is survived by his son, Andrew and Andrew’s wife, Heather and his two grandsons, Noah and Jordan. He is also survived by his brother, Brad and sister-in-law, Elicce; brother, Kent and sister-in-law, Anne; nephews, Toby and Brent and his grand-nephew, Archer.

West was a sports-fanatic and a die-hard Yankees fan. One of his favourite memories was hosting a sports talk show for the University of Victoria and the Victoria Cougars in the 1990s. He had a love for classic rock and was a Coca Cola fanatic.
