

Mary McNeill Nicholls (nee Dryburgh) (1944)

1926 - 2021

Mary passed away peacefully at Glengarry Hospital at the age of 95. She is predeceased by her husband, Colin Nicholls, and brother, James (Jim) Dryburgh. Survived by sons Gary, Keith (Brenda), Mark (Eva), several grandchildren and great grandchildren. Mary was born in Powell River, grew up in Victoria and settled in the Comox Valley. Over the years Mary took on some bookkeeping jobs, using those skills to keep the household running smooth, putting everyone else's needs before her own. Mary especially enjoyed to load up the camper and go metal detecting with Colin, or spend the afternoon with one of the painting groups she was involved with. Always cheerful, she was just as happy to stay home and play a game of Crib. There will be a private celebration of life in the New Year. She will remain forever in our hearts.

Published by The Times Colonist from Nov. 26 to Nov. 28, 2021.