Happy 65th Birthday in Heaven. Today would have been your 65th Birthday. It has been almost 32 years since you were tragically taken from us. Even though we can't see you, the tapestry of our life together is still being woven. I see you in our Children and our Grandchildren. The similarity of the sound of their laughter, their kindness and thinking of others first, the twinkle in their eyes and genuine love for me brings me such joy. Over the years, shock and pain has slowly given way to a deeper ache with the permanence of losing you and what our new reality became like without you. What gets us through each day is focusing on the idea that you are not gone, insomuch as you live on through the words and actions from your most remarkable selflessness and kindness in all those with whom you touched. You touched so many lives while you were here and to many, you are still missed and loved dearly. Until we meet again, Adele, Shane, Nick, Lisa and Amanda
