

Walter James “Jim” Ranson (1945)

Passed away peacefully surrounded by the love of his family. Jim was born the youngest of Fred and Annie Ranson in Victoria, BC, and attended Vic High where he was a standout track athlete, rugby player, and lacrosse player for the Victoria Shamrocks. Jim played golf for over 55 years being a junior member at the Uplands Golf Club and later on at the Cordova Bay Golf Course.

Jim was a prominent real estate agent in Victoria for over 50 years with firms like Brown Bros, Pemberton Holmes and his own firm Westgate Realty.

He enjoyed gardening, riding his John Deere tractor, annual family vacations to Hawaii, spending time with his grandchildren, swimming in his home pool and supporting his family in both competitive swimming and soccer.

He was predeceased by his loving wife Pat, brother Fred, and eldest son David. Lovingly remembered by his son Jay (Janet), daughter Andrea (Dante) Zanatta, daughter-in-law Ardele, grandsons Jeffrey (Lindsay) and Graeme Ranson, Keegan and Dario Zanatta, and Scott Burbidge.

Published in The Times Colonist from Jan. 9 to Jan. 11, 2021.