

Libby Steingold (nee Mitchell) (1965)

STEINGOLD, Elizabeth Rosemary (Libby) nee Mitchell Passed away November 14th after a short illness. Predeceased by her mother, Eleanor Sinclair. Libby leaves behind her loving husband Norm and son Jeffrey; sister Susan; cousins, Kathy (Garth), Jerry, Murray (Valma); best friends Ian and Diane and family, Eric and Donna. Thanks to best neighbors, Steve, Tammy and girls. Libby was a James Bay girl who attended schools in James Bay as well as Central and Vic High. Her first job was as a key punch operator at Motor Vehicles. She met Norm in 1968, moved to England, married and two years later they moved back to Victoria. Libby loved to play the piano and sing and sing her wonderful little ditties she composed for family and friends. Gardening was also a passion and she had the prettiest garden in the neighborhood. She will be sorely missed by all who knew her.

Published by The Times Colonist from Nov. 18 to Nov. 19, 2010.