

Bridge, Olga J. (nee Laschuk, Kowalyk) (1951)

With heavy hearts the family of Olga J. Bridge, 88, announce her unexpected but peaceful passing on April 6, 2021 at Victoria General Hospital.

She was born to the late Ted & Tina Laschuk in Prince Albert, Saskatchewan on April 1, 1933. Olga graduated from Victoria High School in 1951.

She married the late Norm Kowalyk in 1955, and lived together until Norm's passing in 1978. Olga is survived by two sons, Paul (Debbie), Ross (Donna) and grandsons Kory & Sam. She is also survived by her two nieces Sandy Tarrangle & family & Linda Checko.

Olga re-married a most sincere gentleman, the late Peter Bridge in 1989 until his passing in 2005. She is survived by his children Debbie (Doug) Vincent, Sue (Don) Dojack, Skip (Shannon) Bridge, & a host of grandchildren & great grandchildren.

Olga enjoyed many friends in her lifetime, V.O.N., Red Jackets, Racquet Club, Shamrocks Lacrosse, CCYC, and many co-workers at the RJH.

She enjoyed painting in her spare time and left us with some of her lovely works of art. Olga had an open door policy at her home, always willing to help out with feeding people with her infectious & mischievous smile whilst always being ever so fashionable.

Published by The Times Colonist from Apr. 10 to Apr. 12, 2021.