

BRIGGS Tillman Alfred
October 21, 1930 - May 8, 2009

Tillman Alfred Briggs, loving husband and father, respected mentor and coach, passed away peacefully the evening of May 8th. Tillman will be remembered as a man whose love and passion for sports defined a life that touched the minds, hearts and spirits of many individuals from around the world. He will be lovingly celebrated in Victoria on Friday, May 22nd, 1:00pm at the Conservatory of Music, with a reception following at the Laurel Point Inn. In his honor, a fund has been established for the grassroots development of rugby. Donations may be made to The Tillman Briggs Legacy Fund, c/o 205 Simcoe St., Victoria, BC, V8V 1K6. Donations can also be made to the Vic High Titans Fund, c/o Victoria Foundation, 109 - 645 Fort St., Victoria, BC V8W 1G2,

Published in Vancouver Sun and/or The Province on May 20, 2009.