

Sylvia W. St. Jean (nee Jubb) (1958)

It is with great sadness the family of Sylvia announce her passing May 11, 2022, 10 days before her 82nd birthday. Sylvia touched many lives with her friendly and compassionate personality. She was 'old school' and never missed a birthday, or other special occasion to show her thoughtfulness to friends and family. Sylvia was born in Victoria and spent her whole life here. She was a trained secretary and worked in many positions that utilized her skills, both in government and private industry. She was a talented public speaker and she won many awards while in the Dale Carnegie program. She spent many years managing the Seagate Apartments in Esquimalt, and befriended many tenants. Her devotion to Alcoholics Anonymous led her to service as mentor, organizer and speaker, and she was beloved by all she met.

Sylvia is predeceased by her husband, Regent. She was close to her niece and nephews, especially nephew Stephen Gee. Sylvia is survived by three siblings; Peter Jubb (Sue), Joseph Jubb (Vivian), and Doreen Gee.
