

Judyth Ann Stalzer (nee McMaster) (1963)

September 15, 1943 - November 30, 2019

It is with deep sadness that we say goodbye to our beloved Judy. Predeceased by husband, Frank, Judy leaves her daughter, Karen and son, Chris, son-in-law, Simon Ayres, grandchildren, Colin and Laura Ayres, sisters Maggie Cox (Mike predeceased), Jean David (Ted), Mary Godlonton (Jack), and her loving partner, Arturo Ascencio.

She also leaves many sisters and brothers-in-law, nieces, nephews, and friends. Judy grew up in Victoria but returned to the city of her birth, Vancouver, a few years after high school. She worked, married, built a house with Frank in Burnaby, raised a family and made countless friendships that would last a lifetime. After Frank's passing, she moved to Langley to be closer to her children and grandchildren. Judy was filled with tremendous energy with a zest for life that was her driving force as shown by her many travels across the globe. Family and friends were her mainstay.

For those of us she left behind, the suddenness of her passing is difficult to bear. She was loved by many and will be deeply missed. The family extends a special thank you to the staff at Surrey Memorial Hospital.
