

BRADLEY, W. Kenneth (1950)

July 23, 1923 - October 7, 2009

Ken Bradley died peacefully at Victoria Hospice on October 7, 2009. Ken was born and raised in Victoria. He attended Bank Street, Oaklands, Central and Victoria High schools. He served his apprenticeship as a machinist at Ramsay Machine Works. We will remember Ken as a lover of gardening (especially his roses) and as a skilled furniture designer and woodworker. Ken was proud of his family and home. Special thanks to the wonderful care provided by community care nurses Pat and Sascha, Dr. Carol Jenken, and the staff in the ambulatory care units at Saanich Peninsula and Royal Jubilee hospitals. The family also appreciates the kindness of the staff of The Cridge Centre where Ken lived for the past year. Ken is survived by his wife of 59 years Jean, and children Lorie (Russ) and Bill (Felicity), and grandchildren Patrick and Clara. There will be no service at Ken's request. Donations to The Cridge Centre for the Family would be much appreciated. 564378

Published by The Times Colonist from Oct. 10 to Oct. 11, 2009.