

DEBBIE FARLEY (nee Fast) (1976)

January 03, 1958 - May 01, 2023

Born in Cedar Rapids, Iowa and raised in Victoria, Debbie graduated from Vic High in 1976 and later that year married Tom, her happily ever after. Together they built a life and a family with stops in Vancouver, Calgary, Toronto, Palm Desert and Coronado. From Asia to Africa, Australia to Europe Debbie, an avid traveller, touched the four corners of the world. On a good day, and much to the boys' chagrin, Debbie was the best golfer in the family. Her multiple holes-in-one is proof.

While travel and golf were passions, her real love was saved for family. It was her generosity of spirit and home for which she will be most fondly remembered. That, and her ability to cook. Self-taught, she was an expert in the kitchen and that is where her magic was on full display. With family, friends and fabulous food, Debbie had the wonderful ability to bring people together.

Predeceased by her father Frank, Debbie is survived by her husband of 46 years Tom, sons Kris (Amber), Adam (Jill), grandchildren Kolbie, Bennett, Harrison, Mother Barb Fast, sister Patti (Dean) and many nephews and one niece.

If you knew Debbie, you would know that her love for life was so strong and her battle against cancer was so fierce that ultimately, because her cancer died along with her, the best that cancer could say was that it was a tie.
