

Stephen, David Balford (1963)

Dec. 2, 1945 - Dec. 11, 2020

David leaves behind his children: Michelle and her wife Stacey Hewlett, son David, his wife Catherine (Vantol), and their daughter Kaylen and son Michael and his partner Jenna Anderson. He will be lovingly be remembered by his brother Alex. He was predeceased by his sister Margaret (Sabell), and his parents Joseph (Steve) and Constance (Connie).

David was born and raised in Victoria B.C. and graduated from Victoria High School. He moved to Prince George in his early 20's where he married Susan (Guest) and had his family. There he worked for CNN, Norm White's Glass, and did woodworking with Lyn Black where he found his passion. David and Ross Pullan started up Yorkshire Woodworking in the early 80's. It was a thriving business until the early 90's. David was a Rotary member during this time.

David moved back to Victoria in the mid-90's where he worked in finishing carpentry for a while. He eventually retired from the grocery industry and moved to Nanoose Bay. Although time got in the way, he loved gardening and had developed a talent for wood carving, both of which he pursued during his time in Nanoose Bay.
