

NIP, Sheldon David (1950)
(also known as Sheldon Nipp)
1931 – 2023

Sheldon David Nip died with strength, calmness, and dignity on Sunday, October 1st, 2023 at the Royal Jubilee Hospital in Victoria, after a lengthy illness. Predeceased by his wife Sandra Bo Chun Nip (nee Lee) in 2016. He was the eldest son of Soon Chong Nip and Laura Nip.

Sheldon was born in Victoria, BC on May 18th, 1931. He spent his younger years in Port Alice, BC, and graduated from Victoria High School in 1950.

Sheldon worked for decades as a shop foreman at Kenametal Inc., for the Victoria and Langford plants. Sheldon was an avid and competitive bowler. He won a number of provincial bowling competitions and achieved a perfect 300 points game. In his retirement, Sheldon loved and excelled in ballroom dancing and participated in many community's dancing events.

Sheldon will be deeply missed and forever cherished by his brothers Chark, and Richard, and sisters Helen, Verna, Eva (Lawrence), Connie, and many nieces, nephews, and step-sons Kenny (Kathleen), Samuel (Diana), and Tony (Donna), and step-grandsons Kinman (Tiffany), step-great granddaughter London, Nathan, Darren (Stephanie), Baron (Mabel), and step-granddaughter Christina (Tyler). Predeceased by sisters Sarah, Barbara, and Jean.

Published by Victoria Times Colonist from Oct. 7 to Oct. 9, 2023.