

POTTINGER, Raymond Henry Bruce (1949)
November 13, 1931 - April 24, 2024

Ray passed away peacefully at the age of 92. Predeceased by his daughter Cindy and fondly remembered by his wife Viola; children Lance (Angela), Bert, Wade; grandchildren Fhara, Dean, Josh, Jillian, Chelsea; great-grandchildren Mereck, Axel, Sacha, Anderson and many friends and colleagues.

Ray worked his whole life as a printer for various newspapers, including the Times Colonist, Nanaimo Free Press and the Queen's Printers.

Ray was an avid race car driver. He started in the early 50's at Shearings` Speedway in Cobble Hill and raced from the inception of the Langford Speedway across Western Canada, and the USA until the mid 70s.

He won many races including the first Daffodil Cup at Western Speedway and the Canadian American Modified Racing Association (CAMRA) Championship Race. He was inducted into the Victoria Auto Racing Hall of Fame in 1998.

Through the years he had fun bowling and curling with his wife Viola. Retiring to a beautiful farm in Cobble Hill, Ray and his wife Viola also enjoyed the country life.
