

Bill Sturrock (1952)

William Robert "Bill" Sturrock was born in Victoria on May 25, 1934, the first of three children born to Edwin George Sturrock and Annie Margaret Kerr. Edwin was tragically killed while on duty with the Canadian Provost Corps when Bill was 10. Bill earned Bachelors and Masters degrees in engineering from University of British Columbia.

He married and had five children: Gordon, Heather, Brenda, Don and Bill. His aerospace engineering career took him and the family to Boeing in Seattle, Northrup-Gruman in Los Angeles then back to Victoria where he lived for the rest of his life.

He married Nancy Brunner Miller in 1987. Together they enjoyed traveling and gardening. Bill's other interests included photography, model boat building, and bagpipe music.

After living a long and healthy life, he passed away at Royal Jubilee Hospital on May 31st following a brief illness. Bill is survived by four of his children, his step-children, Diane Brown and Roy Miller, 10 grandchildren and numerous great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his wife, Nancy and his daughter, Brenda.
