

June Patricia Fletcher (nee Wellburn) (1957)

June passed away peacefully in her sleep on March 31st, with her granddaughter by her side. Born and raised in Victoria, she attended Cloverdale Elementary, S.J. Willis Jr. High, and graduated from Vic High in 1957.

After marrying Peter Fletcher in 1958, she lived as a lighthouse keeper's wife at Saturna Island, Cape Scott, and Ballenas Island. During that time, she ran her household and taught her children how to read and write through correspondence classes. In 1970 the family moved back to Victoria, where she eventually worked as an administrative assistant for the provincial government for several years.

Always adventurous with an open mind to new experiences, June enjoyed hiking the trails at Mt. Ranier, travelling to Hawaii many times, and visiting California, Arizona, Cuba, England, Ireland and France, among other countries.

She made friends wherever she went and kept in touch over distances and decades, always making time for those she met at school, work, Gorge Point and the Esquimalt Pool.

She had a warm, caring spirit, an infectious sense of humour, and an uncanny ability to make the best out of any situation. She loved and took immense pride in her two children, Dan (Veronique) and Sharon (Glen), five grandchildren, Matt (Sonja), Brianne, Nick (Aimi), Kaitie, and Savannah (Kerry), nieces and nephews, Les, Ray, Karen, Jan and John, and a great-granddaughter on the way. She is predeceased by her long-time companion, Hugh Nicol. She will be deeply missed by her friends and family, all of whom will treasure the many wonderful memories she leaves behind.

"It's brightening!"
